

The following photos were mostly taken by my father, John Conover, Sr., Staff Sargent in the US Army Air Corp, 5th Air Force, in World War 2, in the Pacific. He was a gunner in a B24 Liberator

Dad's plane, with signatures of all the crew-

Top row: Arthur Adams, Pilot, William Bruce, Co-Pilot, Vincent Anderson, Navigator,
Paul Brown, Belly Gunner

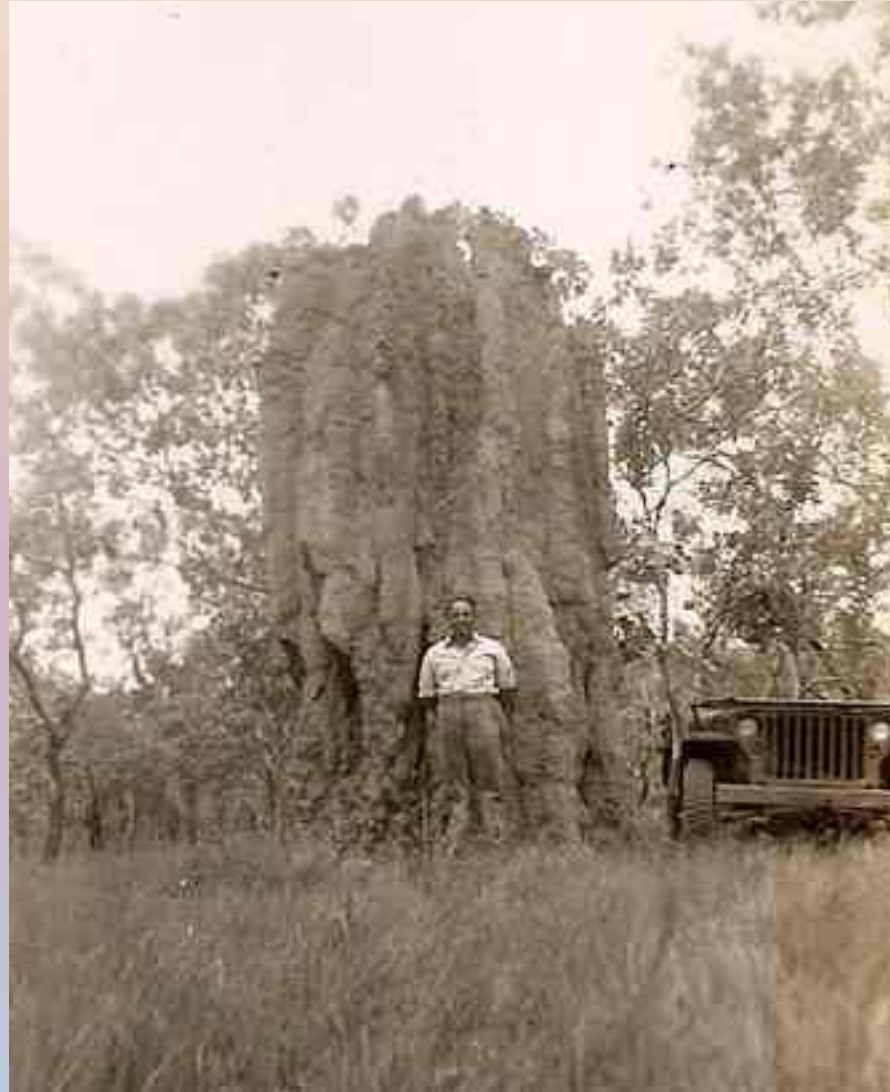

Bottom Row: John Conover, Top Gunner, Kenneth Belknap, Bombadier, Austin
Graham, Radio Operator, William Watson, Engineer, Joseph R Graziadei, Tail Gunner,
Not in photo:Everette Shreve , Nose Gunner.

An ant hill is behind the man

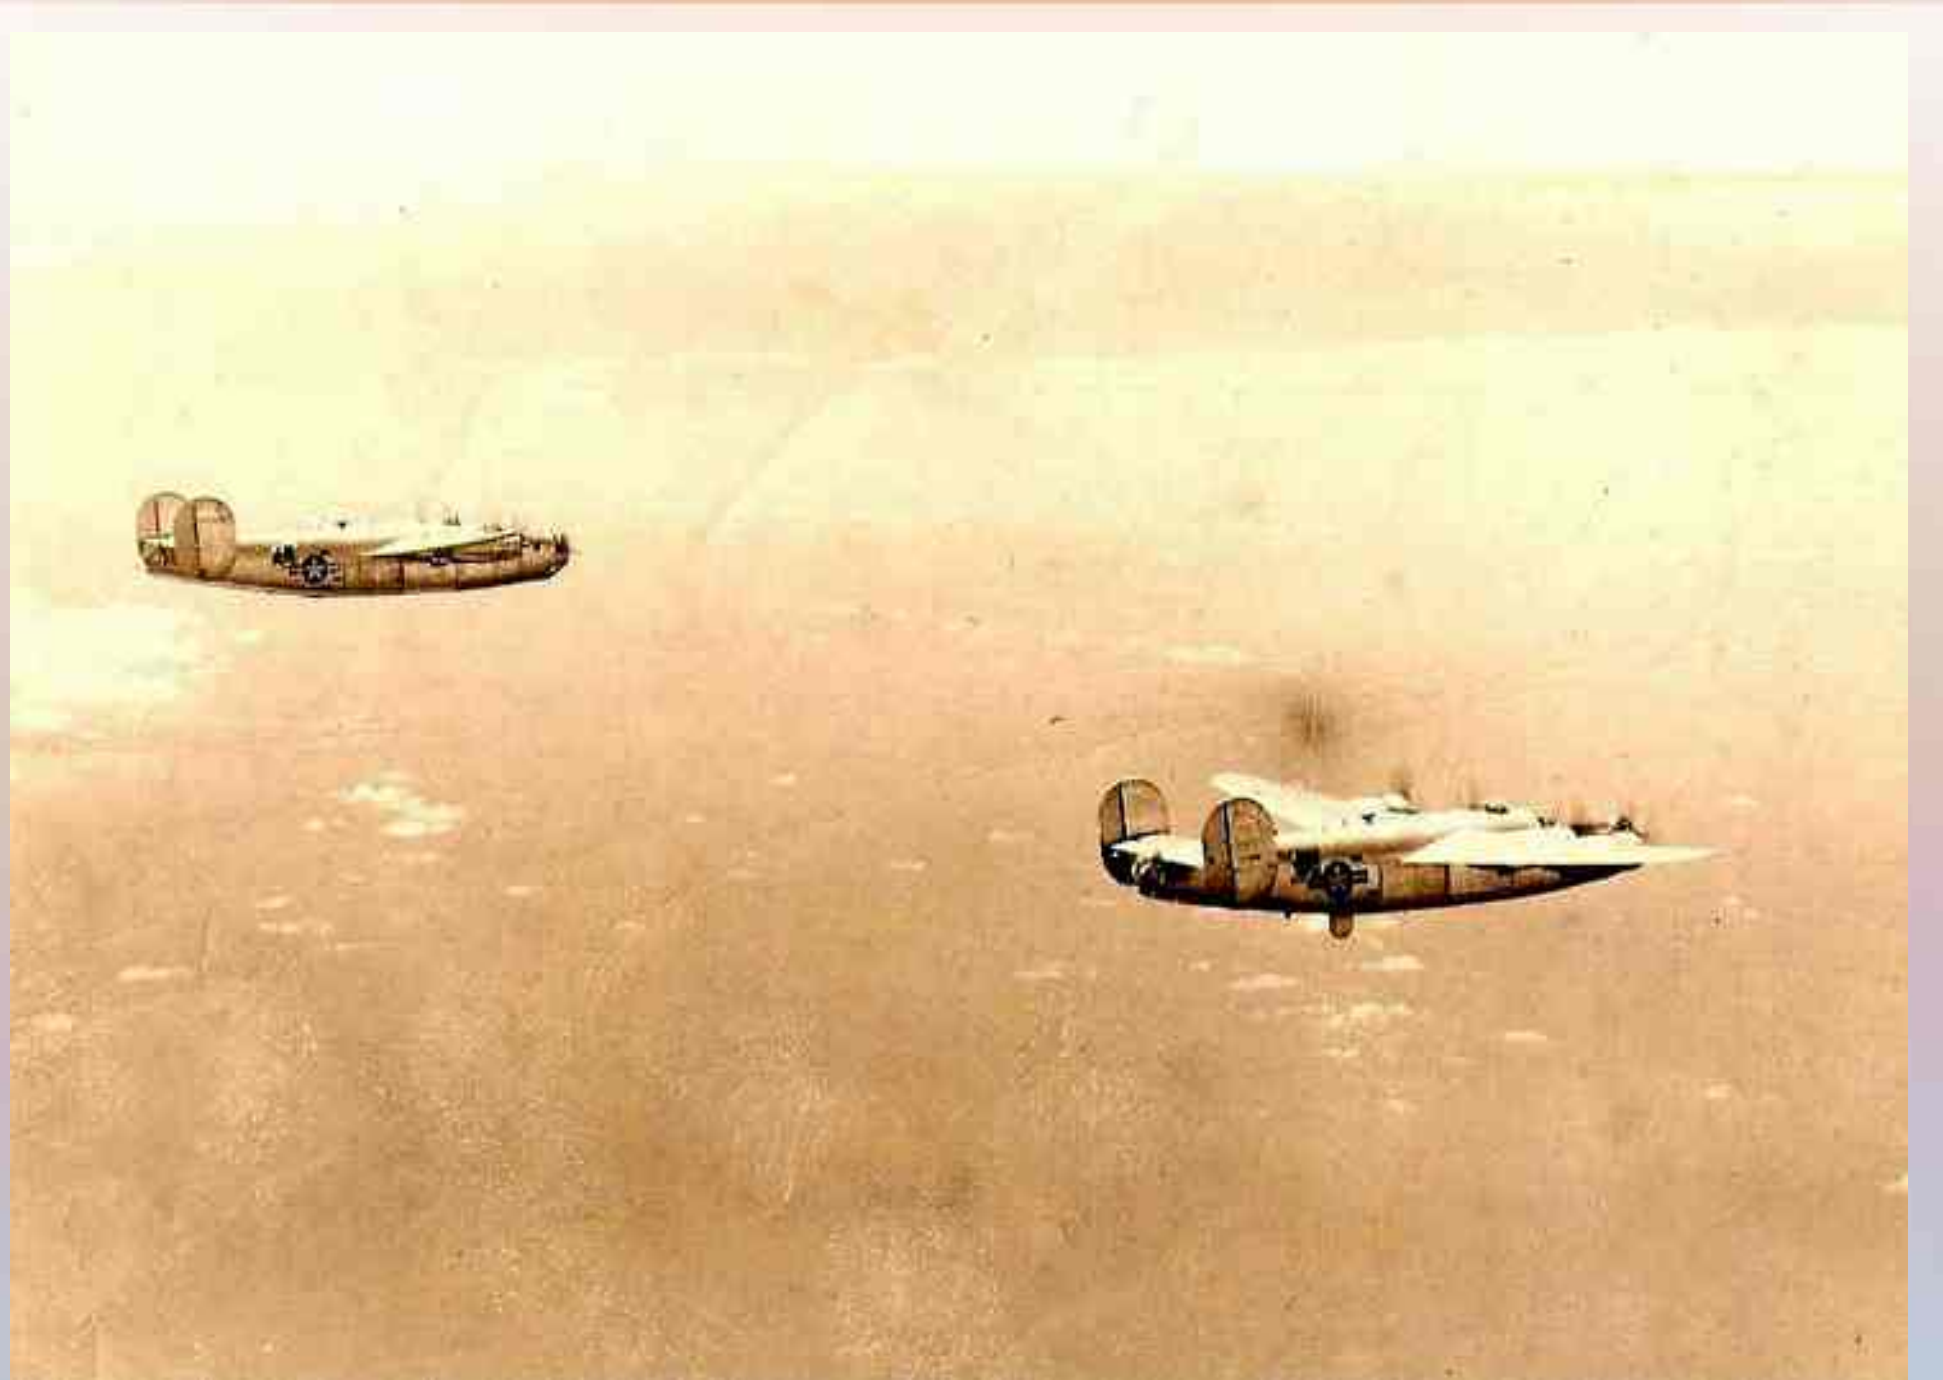

Inside the B-24

Bail-Out Bell

The vertical stabilizer was damaged by anti aircraft fire, the pilot landed the plane safely(Dad's plane)

Battle Weary

Rest and recreation for the airmen

An aerial reconnaissance photo of Balikpapan, Borneo

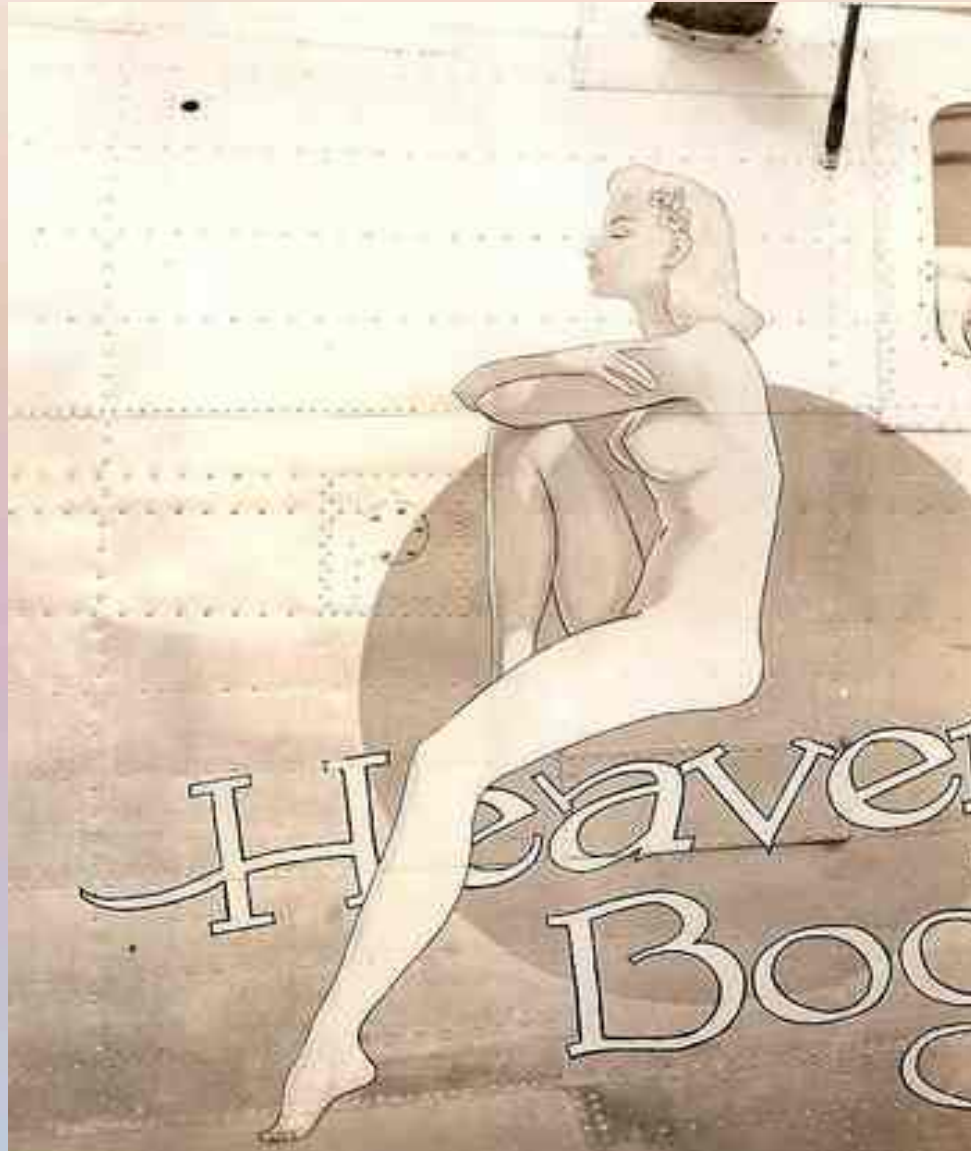

Inside a B-24

Inside a B-24

Dad's plane was named the Heavenly Body

Saigon, French Indo-China

Joe Graziadei with his pet Wallaby

Washing clothes

Pilot's view

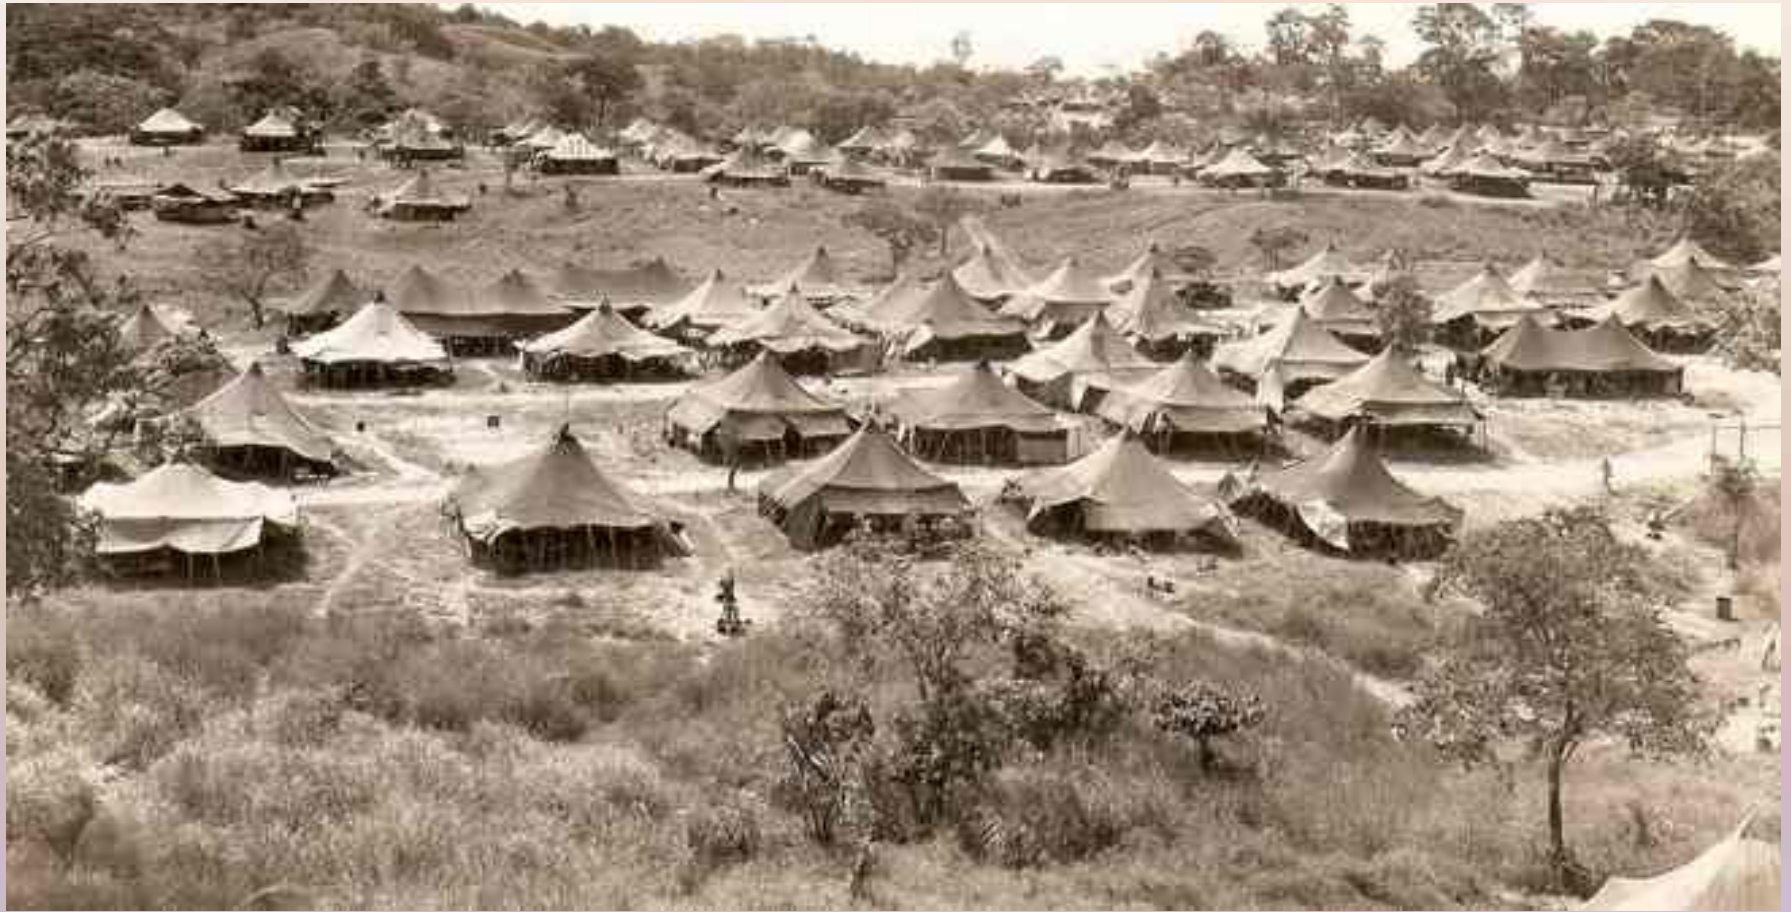

On a sugar cane plantation in the Philippines

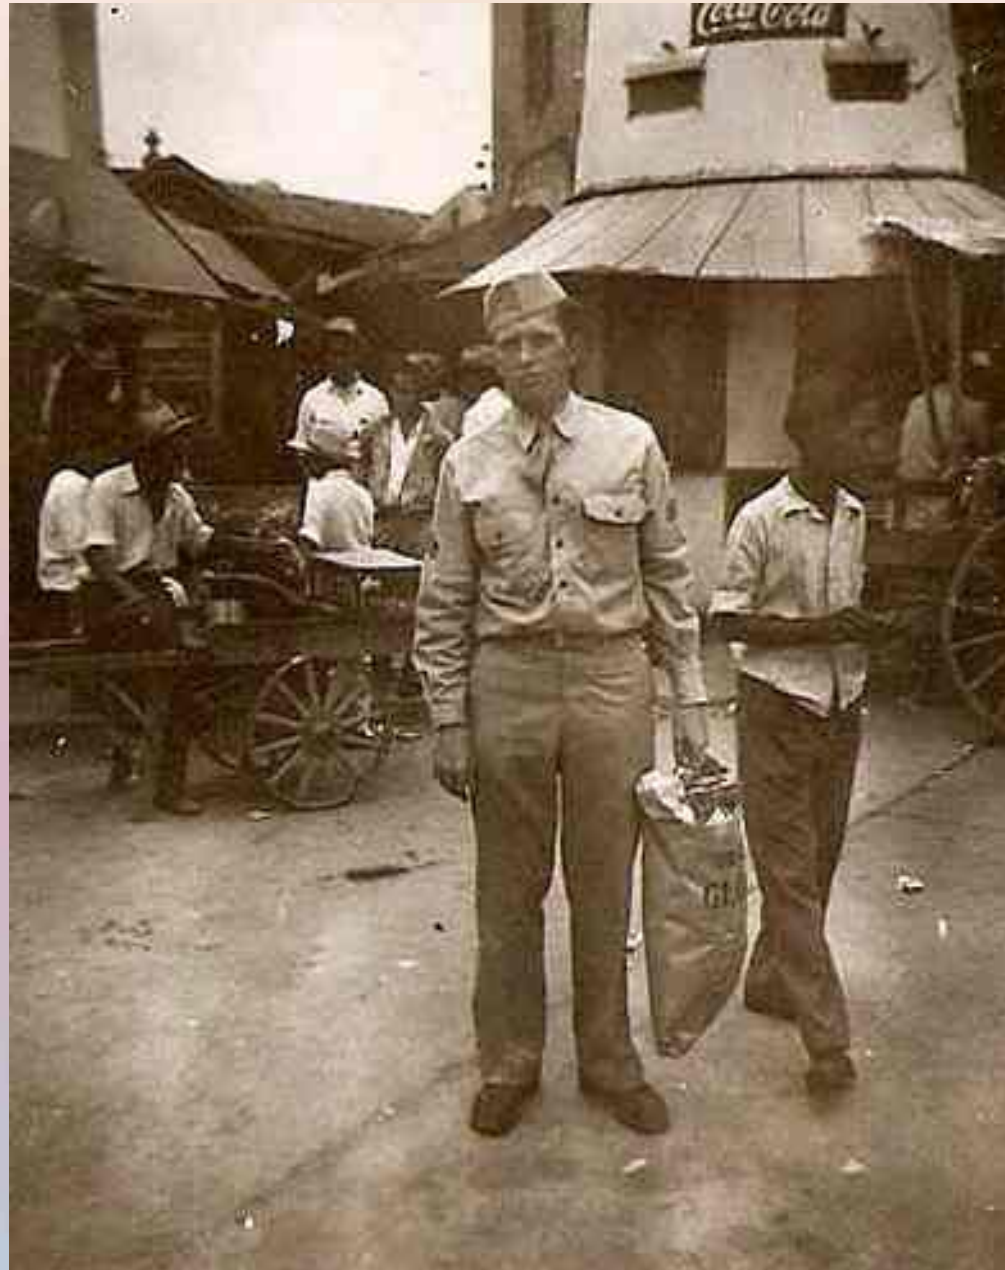

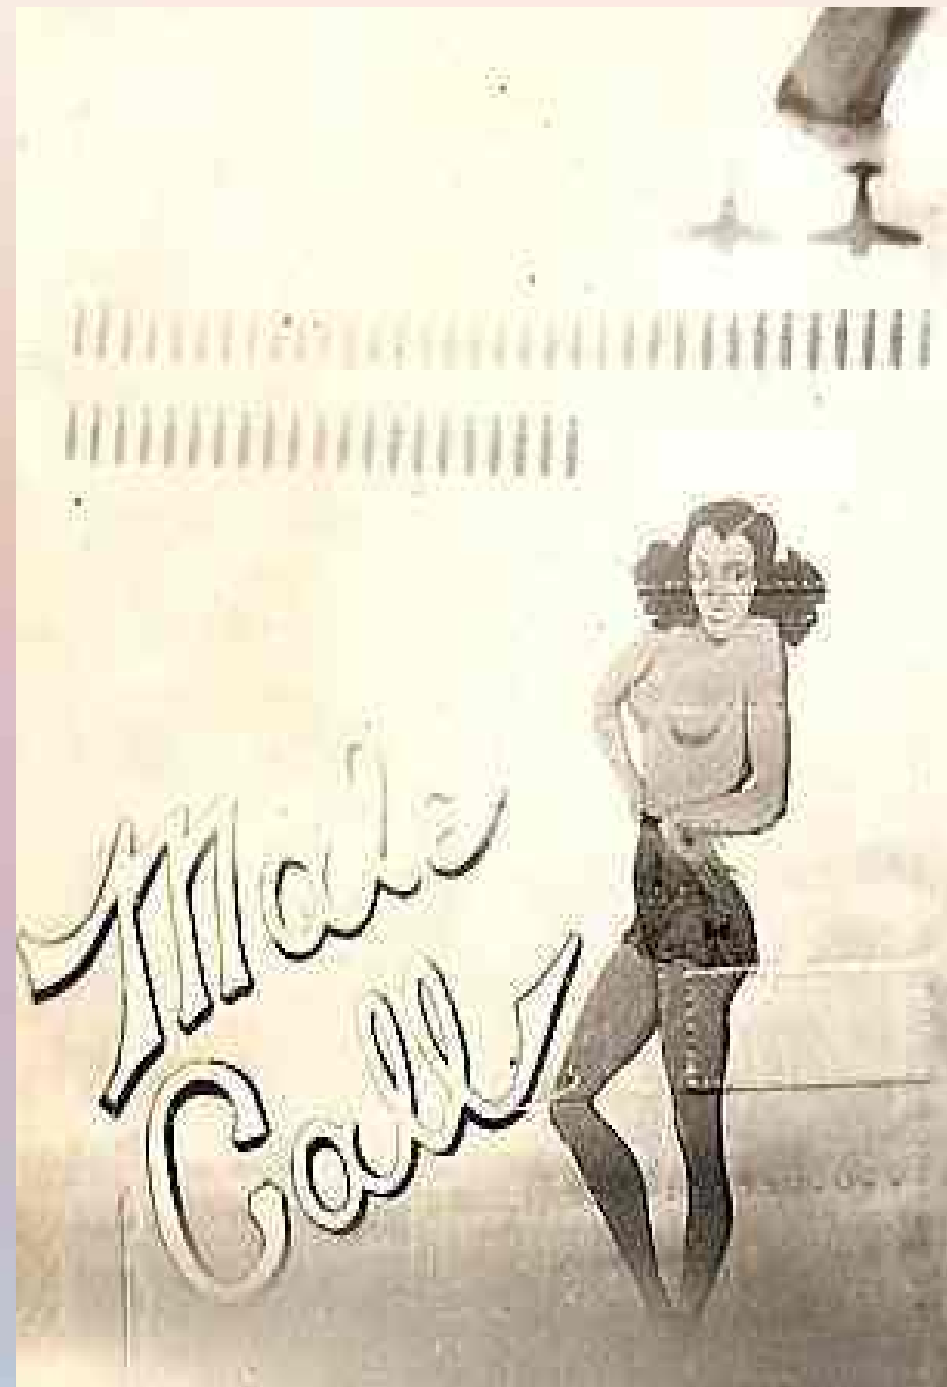

Dad's driving.

About 50 years after the war was over, we went to see a restored B24 at Republic Airfield, Farmingdale, Long Island, New York.

